CRAZY INTERVIEW NO. 9

Writer: Michael Weiss

— A TALK WITH MOSES —

Artist: Mured Gumen

Hello, I'm Tom Snider here with another CRAZY interview. My guest today is a man who claims to be Moses... God's messenger in biblical times! Tell me, Moses... what was it like to be God's messenger in those days?

Awful! Just awful! There was no such thing as a zip code! Why do you think it took 40 days and 40 nights to get the Ten Commandments?

As God's messenger, were you assisted by anybody?

Well, my brother Aaron was my right-hand man... but I also had a highly-trained staff!

I see, Moses... how does it feel being the Idol of millions?

I'm sorry! Tell me... do you think your people's problems with the Egyptians could have been settled in a better way other than plagues?

Uh-uh... don't say Idall!

No, I don't! You must remember, these were biblical times... there were no such things as Camp David talks!

TOMORROW IS THE NEXT DAY OF THE REST OF YOUR LIFE!

You know... I just realized something! It's a well-known fact that Moses spoke with a lisp... but you don't have the slightest trace of one! Do you care to explain that?

It's really quite simple... I've been seeing a speech therapist! However, I still have trouble saying "She sells seashells by the seashore... uh, She shells sheashells... uh, she sells sheashoes..."

You know something? I don't think you're Moses! I think you're some two-bit imposter out to collect our scale fee! I'm on to you! Get out of this studio and never come back!

Oh, yeah? Take this!

H-how did you do that?

Remember what I said about having a highly-trained staff?

Uh... this is... OOF Tom... ARGHH Snider returning you to... UGHH CRAZY Magazine

MOSES! COME BACK! I BELIEVE YOU!

ripoff! From now on I will never buy your stupid magazine again!

Gerry King
San Pedro, Cal.

Dear Gerry,

There you go, behaving just like a parrot...repeating what everybody else is saying!

In issue #41, "Hamily" was the corniest thing I ever saw...

Alex Montsro
New York, N. Y.

Dear Alex,

So? Don't you like corn with your ham?

I hated issue #47! Why? Because I like animals and I hated the Riskie cat food page. Why don't you test them on yourself before you print them? This is my first and final letter. I'll never buy Crazy again!

Joe Broschius
Shamokin, Pa.

Dear Joe,

We should never have let the cat out of the bag!

You guys make a lot of mistakes! Like in Crazy #50, in your article "Superman", first you stated Lois Lane's name was "Lois Loon". Then next you said it was "Miss Lane" and finally you said it was "Miss Lame"! What's going on?

Pat Alters
St. Pete, Fla.

Dear Pat,

Most likely, our proofreader!

I recently read Crazy #50. It was super! My favorite was "You Know You're Ugly When..." Where did you get those jokes?

Lisa Hoepner
Danville, Illinois

Dear Lisa,

It's easy if you look the part!

My friends got me to buying Mad, Crazy and Cracked. I now have 23 magazines all together. I read Crazy mostly, but I like Mad better. How come?

Lance Eagen
El Toro, Cal.

Dear Lance,

Who knows? Maybe you're a little Cracked!

I've only got two issues of CRAZY because I'm new to your mag, but both issues are fantastic! I'd like to say something to those people who hate CRAZY: "You make me SICK!"

David DeLallo
Dix Hills, N.Y.

Dear David,

You mentioned a competitor's name...that makes us MAD!

CRAZY No. 50 was just plain stupid! I read the satire on Playbore Magazine. Why do you put stuff like that in CRAZY?

Patrick McNew
Belair, Md.

Dear Patrick,

It's a dirty job, but somebody's got to do it!

There are two views of CRAZY. 1. The most stupid, ignorant, trashy magazine around. 2. It's a neat, cool publication. I think it is half and half.

Robert Savage
McKinney, Texas

Dear Robert,

The question is...which half do you think it is?

I think you should do a satire on the movie "Every Which Way But Loose"...

Brigitte Lemone
Caledon, Ontario

Dear Brigitte,

We would, but right now our budget is very tight!

Thanks for issue #50 with Superman. It made me really fly. I liked The Incredible Hulk too. It made me hold my breath until I was green. And I really loved the Hustle Handbook. It helped me with my disco!

Carl Mohr
Norfolk, Va.

Dear Carl,

Some humor magazine we have... It makes you do everything but laugh!

Your staff is a bunch of bird-brained idiots! And the price of CRAZY is a

How about doing a TV satire on "Battlestar Galactica" or "Chipe" or "The Incredible Hulk" or "Star Trek"? Any one of these shows would suit me fine. One more question. Where do you get such dumb ideas?

Roy Pena
Manila, Philippines

Dear Roy,
From people who send in letters like yours!

Eye hav capchurd yor pruff reeder! Send mee 5 hundred $'s too get him bak!

Mark Leedom
Granville, Ohio

Dear Mark,
We'll send you 5 hundred $'s if you keep him!

I just recently bought Crazy #50. Your Playbore Mag. was hilarious! I almost rolled over laughing! Where do you get your crazy ideas?

Pat Callow
Farmington, Mich.

Dear Pat,
The question is not where... the question is why?

I think your magazine is very funny. I just read No 48. All of it was funny but I liked the article, "Theme Songs For Different Occupations" the best!

Jason Hinchcliffe
Earth, Texas

Dear Jason,
That's magic to our ears!

What's the matter with you clogs? Don't you know how to count? In issue #47, on page 33, under Part Three, you went from Rule Two to Rule One in the Baker's Unwritten Rules!

Kenny LeGrand
Holland, Ohio

Dear Kenny,
See why those rules remain unwritten?

Crazy #50 was my first issue and I really enjoyed it. It was the funniest magazine I ever read. Keep up the good work, and don't listen to anybody who says CRAZY stinks!!!

S.R.
Detroit, Michigan

Dear S.R.,
Don't listen to them? Who can ignore 140 million people?

In issue #50, Rebecca Banks made a mistake in her letter to CRAZY. She said that in issue #46, on page 16, panel 5, you made the mistake of having a nun wear sneakers! That was no mistake!

Ben Hay
Arlington, Va.

Dear Ben,
Nun of your business!

IF YOU ASK ME, IN IRAN TODAY THERE'S
ONE AYATOLLAH
TOO MEIN...

I know your magazine dares to be dumb, but so do your writers! I bought CRAZY and I vomited all over it when I saw what was inside. Boy, do you stink!

Roger Osborn
Flushing, N. Y.

Dear Roger,
You must too... after what you did all over CRAZY!

Even though I don't understand you guys, you're still the greatest!

Jordan Kuehn
Seattle, Wash.

Dear Jordan,
We're trying to figure you out too!

I'd like to say something to Larry O'Rourke, Sharon Ratcliffe and Russ Young who wrote letters in issue #50. I love CRAZY! It's your letters that stink, not CRAZY!

Michelle Totra
St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Michelle,
We welcome yours to the fold!

TV SATIRE

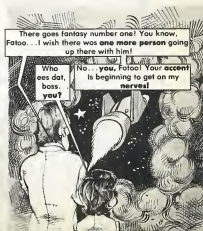

In 1964, CBS-TV came out with a series called "Gilligan's Island". It was hated by the critics for being totally unrealistic and inane. Well, Gilligan's Island was nothing in idiosyncrasy compared to a new TV series ten years later. Namely, the way-out, weird and wacky...

CRAZY INVEN

SOLAR-POWERED FLASHLIGHT

This illuminating idea might have had a glowingly bright future. In the beginning it caught on like a flash, but the proverbial torch was put to it when it was discovered that it only worked when struck by direct sunlight.

BACK-PACK ROCKET 'COPTER

Once expected to be a whirlwind success and really zoom upward, this gizmo just never got off the ground. Seems the blades were set too low, and the fuel tanks tended to explode without notice—taking you sky-high the hard way.

PORTABLE SINK-SIDE DISHWASHER

A handy home-appliance, it's constructed by modifying an outboard motor and adding a soap cup. The unit attaches to the kitchen sink and you pull a rope starter. The high-speed propeller pulsates the water, dousing dishes towards it.

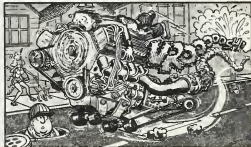

ALL-WEATHER BODY BAG

You won't be left out in the rain when you wrap yourself up in this protective body bag. Just step inside and seal the bag. If you put in some air holes, you'll breathe a whole lot easier as you strut thru the storm.

FLEA-DRIVEN WRISTWATCH

You can have the time of your life with this great new clock-piece with its unique twin-flea power. It's guaranteed to run for three days — longer if you can figure out how to get food into the darn thing.

V-8 SKATEBOARD

This speedy item will really activate your idle hours. You'll be driven wild by a 427 super-charged V-8 as it zooms through your neighborhood. It's been clocked, with a flea-driven wrist-watch, at 176mph — no fueling!

TIONS FOR THE MODERN AGE

Writer & Artist:
Ron Zalme

POGO-VAC VACUUM CLEANER

You'll have a hopping good time as this gadget odds bounce to your life. Watch the downward thrust suck up the dust. All you do is hop around. Yes, you'll stay one jump ahead of your neighbors as you clean your home by leaps and bounds.

COMBUST-A-PET

A hot new idea that is sure to catch on like wildfire! Government surplus flomethrowers have hundreds of uses in the home and garden. Stops weeds, insects, fungus and the neighbor's dog. You'll light up your life as you blaze new trails everywhere.

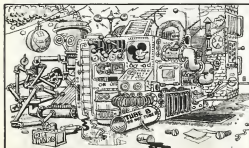

STATIC-CAT DUST ATTRACTANT

Tired of cleaning all those hard-to-reach nooks and crannies? Let kitty do the dirty work. Just spray your cat with this attractant and lint will literally fly to its pelt—clinging there as he wanders from room to room.

AUTOMATIC BED-MAKER

Imagine! The alarm goes off, you hop out of bed, and this device rolls up the covers. Only if you don't respond to your alarm you could be caught in a pretty tight squeeze—as the thing rolls the covers right up to your eyebrows.

MYSTERY MACHINE

This is called the "fully-automotive, high-fidelity, aerobic-synthesizer and resonance-frequency-modulator, with built-in synchronized auto-mash transmitting circuits". Only drawback to success is—nobody knows what it does!

JUNK MAIL SORTER

This handy device was designed to fit in a mailbox and sort out the junk mail from the regular mail. The latter is dropped into a mail bag, while the junk mail is shredded into a trash can. Trouble is, lifting that trash every night!

America wastes water at an alarming rate. Just by doing our regular daily rituals, we waste hundreds of gallons of the precious stuff. If we want to avoid a nationwide shortage in the future, we've got to dry up and stop being so wasteful. And so, in the public interest, we now give you...

CRAZY WAYS TO CONSERVE WATER

Artist:
Brian
Mauro

To save water, Congress should pass a law making it illegal for fat people to dive into swimming pools.

Boiling water for drinking is wasteful, so kettles should have adaptors that change vapor back into water as it boils.

Since taking baths wastes water, all bathtubs should be immediately removed from all private homes.

In their place, pay-showers that work just like pay-telephones should be installed in all bathrooms.

Then, when your time runs out, the water shuts off automatically, unless you go into over-time.

Animal lovers waste a heckuva lot of water by bathing their pets all the time.

Scientists should invent a way to dry clean pet fur like they do with fine clothes.

Kids turning on fire hydrants illegally waste a great deal of precious water.

Therefore, fire hydrants should be equipped with various types of burglar alarms.

People who wash their hair regularly also waste a lot of that H₂O stuff.

The law should require everyone to have his or her head shaved completely bald.

Then everyone would be issued disposable U.S. Government surplus wigs and toupees.

Cleaning streets with water is wasteful so road departments should use floor wax instead.

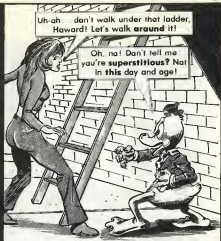

Washing dishes wastes water so, to eliminate dirty plates, food should come pre-cooked in tubes.

Aspirin bottles with "match the arrows to open" that never quite match when you need them.

Soda can tops that come off in your hand just before you can twist them to open the can.

That one burned-out bulb that throws out the whole set on the once lit-up tree you put up.

An open newspaper that just doesn't seem to fit on your table as you try to read it.

Subscription ad cards that fall out of your magazine and land on a nearby passenger's lap.

Slabs of butter that are hard like cement just when you go to slice the darn things.

Face and hand blow-dryers that don't work at all when you need them in the restaurant washroom.

The most of a model ship you're building that just won't set in place no matter what you do to it.

...you take a giant step up to avoid walking into a puddle of water on a street corner, and land right in a mess of doggie-doo!

...you find your wife's unlisted phone number written on a men's room wall at the downtown bus terminal!

...you park your little red and blue foreign car in front of the post office and when you come out it's filled with letters!

...your neighbor's chihuahua uses your lawn for a toilet, and you tell him he'd better do something about it and he does — he trades in the chihuahua for a Saint Bernard!

...you finally go to a nude beach, but after one look at you, the tide goes out and doesn't come back!

...you fall off your skateboard, get hit by a mini-bike and land on the roof of a van going into a car wash!

HEY, MAN... LIKE, THAT'S UNCOOL!!

IT'S JUST NOT YOUR DAY...

Writer: Rico Teller

Artist: Mike Pardo

...you see a bumper sticker that says: "Honk if You Like Sex" so you toot your horn and you get arrested for obscene honking!

...you were cold in bed last night so you put a stretch sock on your head, and this morning you wake up with athlete's ear!

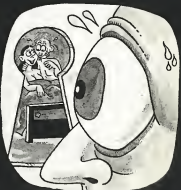

...you accidentally eat the dog food instead of your cereal for breakfast, and now your right leg goes up every time you pass a hydrant!

...you try to join a health club and they tell you to come back when you feel better!

...you buy a suit with two pair of pants and first time out you burn a hole in the jacket!

...you discover that the guy living at your house the past six months isn't really your wife's brother!

CRAZY LOVE POEMS

ROMANTIC RIBBLE FOR THE RIBALD READER

Written by RANDY EPLEY

I like you, I love you,
For you there's affection,
I'd get close if I could
But I'm afraid of infection!

To love you forever
It must be my fate,
But why girls like you
Who are five times my weight?

I wish I could own you,
Mine to embrace,
But it sure isn't easy
When your breath is like mace!

Your movie-star face
Causes quite a sensation,
Just like the face
In "The Martian Invasion!"

Your etiquette at restaurants
Is graceful and elegant,
But your enormous taste in food
Has made you an elephant!

Your eyes are like caverns,
My lovely companion,
Your lips are like rivers,
But your mouth's like a canyon!

From the back you're so pretty,
Your beauty's aesthetic,
But your face is a pity —
It's truly pathetic!

To come home and find you
Is really a thrill,
Like the joy of a sea cruise
When it makes you quite ill!

They said it's only puppy love,
I guess I couldn't see,
Until I saw you lift your leg
While watering a tree!

When I saw you from a distance
You really did attract me,
So, like, sandpaper your face
And get rid of your acne!

I thought that being near you
Would bring me satisfaction,
So I held you in my arms, love,
And now I am in traction!

I bought you the clothing
That accentuates your charm,
But I didn't get you all that fur
That covers up each arm!

Many people tell me
Each picture tells a story,
But if yours does then I know
That it must be very gory!

I really love you, baby,
Said the letter that I wrote her,
Till I got a great big whiff of
Her hairy armpit odor!

Your face could launch 1000 ships
Say the people that you meet,
But before you had your nose fixed
You could sink the British fleet!

I could gaze at you forever
Or until one of us dies,
Or as long as all the lights are out
And I can close my eyes!

I get, when I am near you,
This deep burning desire
To pour butane upon you
And set your soul on fire!

What was gossip like back in the good old days of American history? If you're the nosy type, just lend an ear and feast your eyes on...

HOW THEY LICKED THE STAMP ACT!

Writer: Roger Francis

"I... CANNOT... TELL... A... LIE... I... CUT... DOWN... THE CHERRY... TREE..."

Only picture known of famous act in question. Who is covering up for whom?

VOICE PRINT REVEALS GEORGE WASHINGTON LIED WHEN HE TOLD ABOUT THE CHERRY TREE

"A great fraud has been exposed", says voice-print expert, Dr. T. Horace Fern dip, who claims that George Washington lied when he said he chopped down the cherry tree. "Even if he was very young, he should've known better!", added the disappointed doctor, who has made a career out of butting into other peoples' business. "Notice the stress on such key words as 'cannot' and 'I cut down' in the above graph. It's pure fraud, there's no question about it!"

When asked why young Washington would have lied about doing something wrong if he didn't actually do it, Dr. Fern dip was less specific, but quipped: "Look at all the publicity it got him! He's always wanted to be President, you know!"

BREAKTHROUGH FOR MODERN DENTISTRY: WOODEN TEETH!

"Now thousands can be spared the agony and embarrassment of 'gumming it'", says D.M.D. Otto Klinemine, whose patients include such biggies as General George Washington.

Dr. Klinemine, a former lumberjack, first thought of the idea of using wooden teeth while removing tree stumps. "After all, they both have roots", said the dedicated doctor, whose technique consists of planting an acorn in the gum after a bad tooth is extracted.

HAPPY PATIENT displaying new set of "uppers" developed by Dr. Klinemine.

COUNTRY-WIDE OAT SHORTAGE MAY CAUSE DELAY AT LOCAL STABLES

"The next time you stop to have your horse refueled, don't be surprised if there's a long line ahead of you", warns agricultural expert Oswald J. Maneur, who blames the shortage on a recent embargo on oats by oat-exporting countries in the Mid-East.

"Unfortunately, the problem will not be solved until we can find alternatives to horse-power — or at least, oats.

Although many have placed a lot of hope in the oew-found substance, gasoline — a cheap, easily-produced fuel which will never run out, they say. Authorities however, have rejected it for two reasons: one, no one has gotten around to inventing a gasoline engine yet; and two, it makes a lousy breakfast cereal!

EXPERTS REVEAL: THE MAYFLOW WAS REALLY A U.F.O.

The Mayflower was not of this world — and all past, present and future Americans are really creatures from another planet!

This is the startling claim made by noted alchemist, Bunsen Braker, who has studied the heavens through his binoculars for over thirty years.

CONFIDENTIAL readers may recall Dr. Braker from a former article in which he proved that the earth was not flat, but shaped instead, like a Polish sausage.

It was with a similar degree of expertise that Dr. Braker approached his latest study. "My research proves conclusively that my claims are valid," said Dr. Braker at a recent Knights of Columbus convention. "All witnesses to the landing of the Mayflower at Plymouth Rock have backed up my theory with the same observation — that all occupants of the strange craft were green!"

Dr. Braker may have to wait a long time before his claims are officially accepted by the scientific community as a whole, for many still hold fast the belief that the Pilgrims were in fact green — but only because they were seasick!

HOW THE GOVERNMENT WASTES YOUR TAX $$$

As you know, CONFIDENTIAL is always eager to expose bureaucratic bungling and mis-management — and our latest discovery ought to boggle the imagination of every right-thinking colonist. Incredible as it may seem, a trusted official, none other than Peter Minuet, has admitted to paying the staggering sum of $24 for a worthless strip of land known as Manhattan. Furthermore, when asked to justify this enormous expense, all he could offer in the way of explanation was: "I figured if we waited a few hundred years it would double in value!"

Unfortunately, such an explanation might have been swallowed if it hadn't been discovered that the same group of Indians who made the sale had been trying for decades to give away a neighboring piece of land — New Jersey — for nothing!

PSYCHIC PREDICTS REVOLUTION

CONFIDENTIAL's own staff medium, Madame Olga Troobnick, has predicted the American Revolution. This lends a great deal of credibility to the new and rapidly developing science of psychic phenomena — even if the American Revolution did end six years ago! "Eventually we'll be able to predict events before they happen", said Madame Troobnick at a recent interview. For starters, consider her favorite predictions for the next few decades:

- slaves will eventually be freed — but they'll never admit it!
- Sir Walter Raleigh will develop lung cancer!
- Paul Revere will turn pink!
- Sitting Bull will get hemorrhoids!
- The-shot-heard-around-the-world will be traced to a bean-eating contest in Peoria!

ATTENTION NUDISTS OF AMERICA: IF THE GOOD LORD HAD INTENDED US TO RUN AROUND IN THE NUDE, HE'D HAVE MADE US THAT WAY!

NEW YORK, N.Y.... A landlord here requested rent increases in the tenement he owns, claiming he made some improvements. He put up brand-new "OUT OF ORDER" signs!

BALTIMORE, MD.... SIGN OF THE TIMES: There's a new rock group on the scene called "GASOLINE". Wouldn't you know — since they started their price keeps going up!

LIMA, OHIO... A local fellow hereabouts died two years ago and it has cost his widow $10,000 since the funeral. Seems she buried him in a rented tuxedo.

ANNAPOLIS, MD.... A report from the Navy has revealed that the cost of submarines has doubled in the past year. This proves that even the cost of going down is going up!

PEKING, CHINA... A leading UN delegate has warned the United States about its recent recognition of Red China. "Any country with a population of over 800 million people that claims its favorite sport is ping-pong cannot be trusted!"

NASHVILLE, TENN.... Latest joke making the rounds hereabouts goes like this: Who has the two biggest boobs in America? No, not Dolly Parton. It's Ms. Lillian Carter!

ATTENTION WORLD:
HOW CAN A LEOPARD
TELL WHEN IT HAS MEASLES?

PALO ALTO, CAL.... A leading astro-physicist shrugged off a scare story about a possible nuclear holocaust by saying: "After all, it's not as though the Earth were a major planet..."

LAS VEGAS, NEV.... Rodney Dangerfield reports that his home neighborhood is still tough. "A guy down the block rotated my tires. From my car to his!"

PALM BEACH, FLA.... Hear about the wealthy hippie who recently hired a maid? Every Thursday she comes in to dirty up a little!

WASHINGTON, D.C.... What's new with the Carter family? Folks are saying it isn't easy having a brother who continuously embarrasses you with everything he says and does. But trouper that he is, Billy puts up with it!

WARSAW, POLAND... This country has announced it has taken steps to ease the population explosion there. What they will do is feed birth control pills to storks. Incidentally, Warsaw is recalling all thermometers in that country because of the high incidence of mercury in them.

LEND YOUR NEIGHBOR A GARDEN RAKE AND HE'LL COME BACK FROM NOWHER

These days more and more people are claiming to be endowed with supernatural powers. Now these extraordinary gifts shouldn't be wasted on just anybody. Certain people could really work wonders with things like E.S.P., Telekinesis and Levitation. So if you can't read our minds, then read the following article which plainly shows you...

PROFESSIONS THAT COULD BENEFIT FROM PSYCHIC POWERS

Artist:
Alan Kupperberg
Writer:
Michael Pallowski

I. PROFESSIONS THAT COULD BENEFIT FROM E.S.P.

E.S.P. could help modern artists because then they'd know what well-meaning friends really think of their work.

E.S.P. would be a great asset to contestants on game shows because then they'd know exactly which door to pick.

E.S.P. would improve all aspects of our legal system, especially helping policemen when they question suspects.

Judges with the help of extra-sensory perception would know immediately if defendants were guilty or innocent.

Your average consumer with E.S.P. would know when the used car salesman was stretching the truth a bit.

II. PROFESSIONS THAT COULD BENEFIT FROM TELEKINESIS

If hard hats on skyscrapers had telekinetic powers they wouldn't have to go up and down to fetch things.

Sanitation men with telekinetic powers would never have to dirty their clothes or their hands ever again.

Moving men could certainly put telekinetic powers to good use because of the very nature of the job.

Busy mothers with lots of mouths to feed could get a real helping hand from the power of telekinesis.

III. PROFESSIONS THAT COULD BENEFIT FROM LEVITATION

If a trapeze artist had the power of levitation he wouldn't have to worry any more about missing his catch.

Think of the world records a pole vaulter with the power of levitation could establish — without a pole.

House painters and window washers with levitation powers would no longer need dangerous scaffolds on the job.
